Fast track your FinOps team & maturity

the challenge

Organisations like yours often face several challenges when building a successful FinOps team. Firstly, hiring the best talent in the market with the right certifications and knowledge can be an expensive and time consuming process. Hiring organisations often face stiff competition for the best people, so hiring is not always the best option.

Developing a new team in-house and getting it up to speed can also be a challenging and slow process, however Synyega makes this process easy, we can enrich your existing team with training and accreditations that empower your FinOps function.

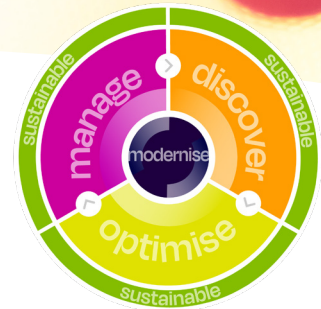

the service

As a FinOps certified training partner with the FinOps Foundation, Synyega are able to offer the official instructor led FinOps Certified Practitioner training in person or online with course materials, examination and fees included. Our certified training instructors can further tailor this content to your organisation's unique needs, or deliver bespoke training courses for other aspects of FinOps and GreenOps. This service specifically support the FinOps Foundation Framework Capability, Education and Enablement.
